VIETNAM VETERANS AGAINST THE WAR

The Vietnam Veterans Against the War (VVAW) is a veterans' organization with a national office at 25 West 26th Street, New York, New York. Its first published objective is "to demand an immediate cessation of fighting and the withdrawal of all American troops from Indochina." VVAW has participated in several demonstrations including a massive demonstration in Washington, D. C., during the period April 19-23, 1971.

On December 30, 1971, an Agent of the Federal Eureau of Investigation (FBI) observed the VVAW commence a demonstration at about 1:00 p.m. at Park and Tremont Streets, Boston, Massachusetts.

Various speakers related their experiences in the Vietnam War and condemned the United States for continuing the war.

Howard Zinn, a Boston University, Boston, Massachusetts, professor, who is not a member of the VVAW, spoke concerning the war, the President of the United States, the United States Congress, and bankers in general for their part in the Vietnam War.

Howard Zinn is a professor of Government at Boston University, Boston, Massachusetts, and has publicly spoken out in opposition to the war in Vietnam at processor willing and demonstrations.

The VVAW group was augmented by representatives from the Peoples Coalition for Peace and Justice (PCPJ), Quakers for Peace, Gay Love, and Women's International League for Peace and Freedom and United Farm Workers Organizing Committee with a total of approximately two hundred in attendance.

A PCPJ press release dated March 1, 1971, described the PCPJ as being headquartered in Washington, D. C., and consisting of over one hundred organizations which are using massive, non-violent, civil disobedience to combat racism, poverty, repression, and war.

During the demonstration, it was announced that some members of the VVAW had left the area unannounced and were attempting to disrupt a part of the "war machine" in the Boston, Massachusetts, area and when word was received that they had accomplished their task the demonstration would move to their support.

An attempt was made to enter the United States Army recruiting office at 110 Tremont Street, Boston, Massachusetts, by the VVAW group; however, this attempt was thwarted by the presence of members of the Boston Police Department at the recruiting station.

About 2:00 p.m., the demonstrators left the area of Park and Tremont Streets, Boston, Massachusetts, end marched to Faneuil Hall, located in the Dock Squere area of Boston. The group entered Faneuil Hall without any permit, occupied the auditorium for about fifteen minutes without any further speeches, and left when it was announced that another group of the VVAW had successfully entered and were occupying a military recruiting station at Fields Corner, Dorchester (Boston), Massachusetts,

The group was asked to proceed to Dorchester, Massachusetts, and lend support to those who had entered and taken over the recruiting station.

The group then left Faneuil Hall in an orderly fashion and about seventy-five of the demonstrators proceeded to the military recruiting station in Dorchester, Massachusetts.

At Dorchester, Massachusetts, nine members of the VVAW entered without force the office of the United States Marine Corps recruiting office and barricased themselves within. The Boston Police Department arrested the group and charged them with trespassing and malicious damage to property valued over $25.

Those arrested appeared in the Dorchester District Court on December 31, 1971, and their cases were continued until January 20, 1972. Those arrested and charged as above are as follows:

All were held in $1,000 bond and were released after posting 5 percent of the amount of the bond.

When they arrived at the base camp there were 15 or 20 people already there, most of them from Colorado and Kansas. The rest of the night was spent getting acquainted and "rapping" with those present. '

There was very little activity on December 25, 1971, and most of the day was spent at the Oleo Strut talking with GI's and gathering "movement" people.

On December 26, 1971, they went to the police in Killeen, Texas, to get (FIRST NAME UNKNOWN) former Army lieutenant, out of jail after he arrested on December 25, 1971, for a traffic violation and for possession of a billy club and a machete.

Then there was a caravan that went from Killeen, Texas, to the Veterans Administration Hospital in Temple, Texas. Along the road to Temple, Texas, an International Harvester station wagon occupied by several VVAW members was forced off the road by a farmer who threatened some of the members with a stateum. On December 30, 1971, there was a "Command Inspection" of merchants in the downtown area of Killeen, Texas, on Avenue D which is also known as "Rip-off Alley." While the persons demonstrating in front of the LBJ Library were busy passing out literature to passersby, they were visited by persons from "Direct Action," an Austinbased organization, and some members of "Women's Lib."

On December 28 television cameras from Channel 7 came to the demonstration at the library and interviewed BILL LEMMER of Arkansas, who said that the demonstration would be non-violent and that the demonstrators would fast for four days. On December 29, 1971, a local radio station came to the library and interviewed a couple of the demonstrators. On December 30 television cameras from Channels 7 and 24 appeared at the library and interviewed some of the persons, including TERRY DUBOSE of Austin, Texas.

During one of the interviews it was learned that someone had released to the news media that the demonstrators were being paid $50 each from the United Servicemen's Fund at Fort Hood. This fund provides grants to GI underground newspapers and is closely affiliated with the Fort Hood United Front which operates the "Fatigue Press," a Killeen underground newspaper.

During one of the interviews DIANE WOLFE of Denver, Colorado, stated she was being paid by a newspaper in Colorado and received $50 for a story and additional funds for photographs and other news items.

Referenced communications indicated that although San Diego Divisios has active chapter of VVAN, case is being closed by San Diego Office. As San Diego should be aware, during recent months VVAV, on national basis, has become more militant and actively engaged in disruptive tactica including takeover of Statue of Liberty, New York City; occupation of Betsy Ross' Mouse, Philadelphia; blockade of Lincols Memorial, Washington, D. C.; attempted disreption of LEJ Library, Austia, etc. In view of considerable potential for various groups to plan and attempt disruptions drring forthcoming Republican Mational Convention, consideration must be given that WVAV, already active in San Diego, would be one of the groups involved. For this reason, Bureau desires active inventigation be maintained is pending status regarding VVAW to fully ascertais. aims and objectives of San Diego area chapters and ta determina any plane for disreptions during 1972. ### VIETNAM VETERANS AGAINST THE WAR INC. (VVAW) INTERNAL SECURITY - NEW LEFT

On December 28, 1971, representatives of the Federal Bureau of Investigation observed approximately 25 individuals wearing military fatigues begin to gather at the Peace Monument on Pennsylvania Avenue at the west side of the United States Capitol Building, Washington, D.C. (WDC). At the Peace Monument a large banner and two flags were displayed on which were printed the Vietnam Veterans Against the War (VVAW) emblem. The banner stated it represented the VVAW from Bergen County, New Jersey, while the flags represented the VVAW, Bronx, New York. Joseph V. Bangert, VVAW, Philadelphia, and Timothy Butz, a Washington, D.C. VVAW spokesman, briefly addressed the group. While gathered at the Peace Monument, Congressional War Ammendments were symbolically burned.

At approximately 2:10 p.m. at the Lincoln Membrial, the demonstrators marched to the beat of a drum and carried a black coffin as well as the above banner and flags.

At 2:45 p.m., while the group passed in front of the White House, an individual smashed a container of red liquid on the sidewalk. He was arrested by the Metropolitan Police Department (MPD), and identified himself as New Jersey, and a VVAW leader. No other significant incidents occurred in the vicinity of the White House.

The group proceeded to the Lincoln Monument, where they arrived at approximately 3:00 p.m. The black coffin was 🛬 placed at the foot of the statue of Lincoln. Until 4:00 p.m., the demonstration continued without incident with participants gathered around the coffin and on the Memorial steps. Howeverat 4:10 p.m., a smoke bomb was thrown down the Memorial steps. At 4:30 p.m., the demonstrators chanted "Peace now" and blocked the Memorial entrance by linking their arms. At approximately 4:40 p.m., a scuffle ensued when the United States Park Police attempted to remove a demonstrator who had climbed upon the structure of the Memorial. Two individuals were arrested at this time.

"Editor, The Union: This is to inform you and your readers of the formation of the Sacramento branch of the Vietnam Veterans Against the War. This group is well known for its efforts nationally against the war, but there has been almost no activity from Vietnam vets on the West Coast. We seek to remedy this situation.

RE: VIETNAM VETERANS AGAINST THE WAR

Subsequent investigation has determined that is identical to a Caucasian Sacramento-area college student, horn Hollywood, California.

Approximately 50 persons participated in a down-town parade in Sacramento on October 25, 1971, which was sponsored by a local contingent of the Vietnam Veterans Against the War (VVAW). This parade, which was peaceful, preceded the regular units taking place in the local Veterans Day parade.

The antiwar group marching ahead of the Veteran's Day parade on October 25, 1971, consisted of a random assortment of youths allegedly representing the VVAW and the Sacramento Draft and GI Help Center. The theme of the protest contingent was publicized as "Peace is a way of life" and called for an end to U. S. military involvement in Southeast Asia.

About 50 persons, among whom was and a few unidentified associates believed to be representing the VVAW, gathered outside the main gate of Mather Air Force Base, California, on the evening of October 29, 1971, in a peaceful antiwar demonstration prompted by the appearance of General William C. Westmoreland on that date at the base.

A source advised that the VVAW organization in Sacramento had conducted no activity since October 29, 1971. The source stated that the organization has no funds and interest in it is limited to a handful of Vietnam veterans who are Sacramento-area college students and have conducted themselves peacefully. Re Minneapolis letter to Bureau with LHM dated November 11, 1971.

Enclosed herewith for the Bureau is the original and 6 copies of a letterhead memorandum captioned and dated as above. One copy of the letterhead memorandum is designated for New York as the office of origin in the case entitled, "Vietnam Veterans Against the War, Inc., aka." All individuals identified in the letterhead memorandum have been checked through Minneapolis Office indices. A few appeared as participants only in a small number of peaceful, non-violent, public anti-war demonstrations and rallies, since pearly 1971. Investigations of these individuals are not obeing instituted by the Minneapolis Office.

Inasmuch as Minneapolis confidential informants of familiar with basic revolutionary and other subversive and violent-prone elements within the Division have advised during the course of this inquiry that the MVVAW is not infiltrated, dominated, or controlled by any of these elements, no further investigation in this matter is being taken or recommended by the Minneapolis Office. Sources utilized in the letterhead memorandum are as follows:

MINNESOTA VIETNAM VETERANS MGAINST THE WAR (MVVAW)

The VVAW is a veterans organization with a National Office located at 25 West 26th Street, New York City, whose first published objective is as follows: "To demand an immediate cessation of fighting and the withdrawal of all American troops from Indochina. We cannot allow one more human being to be killed in Indochina."

Organization

On January 27, 1972 advised that headquarters for MVVAW continues to be located at 1008 S.E. 8th Street, Minneapolic, Minneapola. This group was organized the early part of March, 1971, and is affiliated with the Vietnam Veterans Against the War (VVAW), headquartered at New York City. It ascribes to the published objective of that organization as set out above. The group itself and all of its members are opposed to any type of violent activity or the use of disruptive acts of civil disobedience. It continually emphasized a non-violent theme. In view of this strong non-violent feeling and its earnest opposition to violence the group has no real potential for such activity.

Main activities of this group include providing speakers, publicizing the organization's entiwer position, and carrying out selected non-violent demonstrations as a call for the withdrawal of United States forces from Indochina. They also encourage communication with atate legislators and United States Congressmen, emphasizing their anti-Vietnam War position.

On December 14, 1971 who has furnished reliable information in the past, adivsed that as a part of captioned demonstrations scheduled by Vietnam Veterans Against The War (VVAW), Civil Disobedience was planned on December 26, 1971, at Fort Dix, New Jersey. The demonstrators were denied this request and were escorted off the Post. An anti-war skit was then staged by the demonstrators and anti-war leaflets were passed out to passing motorists. The demonstration concluded at approximately 4:00 pm without incident.

DEMONSTRATION BY VIETNAM VETERANS AGAINST THE WAR (VVAW) TO PROTEST SPEECH BY DEAN RUSK, UNIVERSITY OF ARKANSAS, FAYETTEVILLE, ARKANSAS, JANUARY 22, 1972

MEMBER SUBMINISTER SECRETARION IN

VVAW members had been in contact with University of Arkansas officials and had been reserved some seats in the front row of the men's gymnasium where the formal convocation was being held.

Outside the auditorium immediately before the formal convocation, VVAW planned a solemn protest, including ten persons dressed in black tunics holding a 40-foot banner bearing the names of Americans killed in the Vietnam War.

In addition, some faculty members, names unknown, who were not participating in the formal ceremony have planned a peaceful demonstration outside the auditorium.

RUSK had agreed to a private conference with VVAW members on the afternoon of January 22, 1972, which meeting would take place in the "Deep End," an activity room at the Presbyterian Campus Center.

On January 24, 1972, the same confidential source advised as follows:

SOUTHERN STUDENT ORGANIZING COMMITTEE (SSOC)

On November 1, 1966, a first source advised that the Southern Student Organizing Committee (SSOC) was formed on the weekend of April 3-5, 1964, to stimulate activity of southern student groups in areas of civil rights, peace, academic freedom, civil liberties, capital punishment, and unemployment. Originally, it was to be a white counterpart of the Student Non-violent Coordinating Committee (SNCC). It has agreed to work with similar interested groups such as SNCC and Students for a Democratic Society (SDS) and Southern Conference Educational Fund, Inc. (SCEF). SSOC was as of that time a fraternal affiliate of the SDS.

Beginning in the fall of 1966, SSOC became a membership organization and embarked on a campaign to form local chapters on various college campuses throughout the South. SSOC publishes, October through May each year, a publication, "New South Student," which, according to the above source, has increasingly espoused and defended the pro-Communist and anti-United States position on domestic and foreign policy.

On July 2, 1968, a second source advised that SSOC continues to be headquartered at 1703 Portland Avenue, Nash-ville, Tennessee, and continues to defend and espouse the pro-Communist and anti-United States position with particular emphasis on attacking United States policy in Vietnam and emphasis on attacking the Selective Service System. Source two noted that SSOC Chairman Thomas N. Gardner in the summer of 1967 traveled to Prague, Czechoslovakia, where he met with representatives of the National Liberation Front (NLF) and the Democratic Republic of Vietnam (DRV), and that SSOC staff members Bruce Smith and Alan Levin traveled to Cuba in the summer of 1967 and February, 1968, respectively.

By letter dated April 26, 1968, on SSOC letterhead mailed to the general SSOC membership over the signature of Mike Welch, Executive Secretary of SSOC, it was announced that as a step toward close relations with the Students for a Democratic Society (SDS) and better communications with the movement nationally, SSOC and SDS have worked out an exchange of the "New South Student" and the "New Left Notes," and that SDS and SSCC were exchanging contact lists of their respective memberships for this exchange.

SOUTHERN STUDENT ORGANIZING COMMITTEE (SSOC)

Volume 4, No. 13, issue of the "New Left Notes," a publication of the SDS, dated April 4, 1969, indicated that at the SDS National Council meeting held March 27-31, 1969, at Austin, Texas, a resolution was presented by the Southern Caucus of SDS calling for SDS to break ties with SSOC and to begin building the SDS in the South. 'The resolution was passed by the National Council of SDS.

An article with a Mt. Beulah, Mississippi, dateline appeared on page 11 of the June 18, 1969, edition of the "Daily World" captioned "Stormy Meeting Ends Southern Student Group." This article, in part, indicated that SSOC, described as a white radical organization which had functioned in the South since 1964, was dissolved following a "stormy" 4-day conference at Mt. Beulah, Mississippi, which ended June 8, 1969.

The "Daily World" is an East Coast Communist daily newspaper.  $\frac{1}{3}$

The June, 1969, edition of the "Southern Patriot," self-described as published by the Southern Conference Education Fund (SCDF), on page 1, carried a brief article captioned "SSOC Dies" with a Nashville, Tennessee, dateline, indicating that SSOC was dissolved June 8, 1969, at a convention in Edwards, Mississippi. The article indicated that a committee of five was chosen to liquidate the organization following criticism of SSOC by SDS.

PROGRESSIVE LABOR PARTY (PLP)

The Progressive Labor Party (PLP) was founded in 1962 by individuals expelled from the Communist Party, USA, for following the Chinese communist line. Its objective is the establishment of a militant working-class movement based on Marxism-Leninism and MAO Tse-tung thought.

SOUTHERN CONFERENCE EDUCATIONAL FUND, INC.

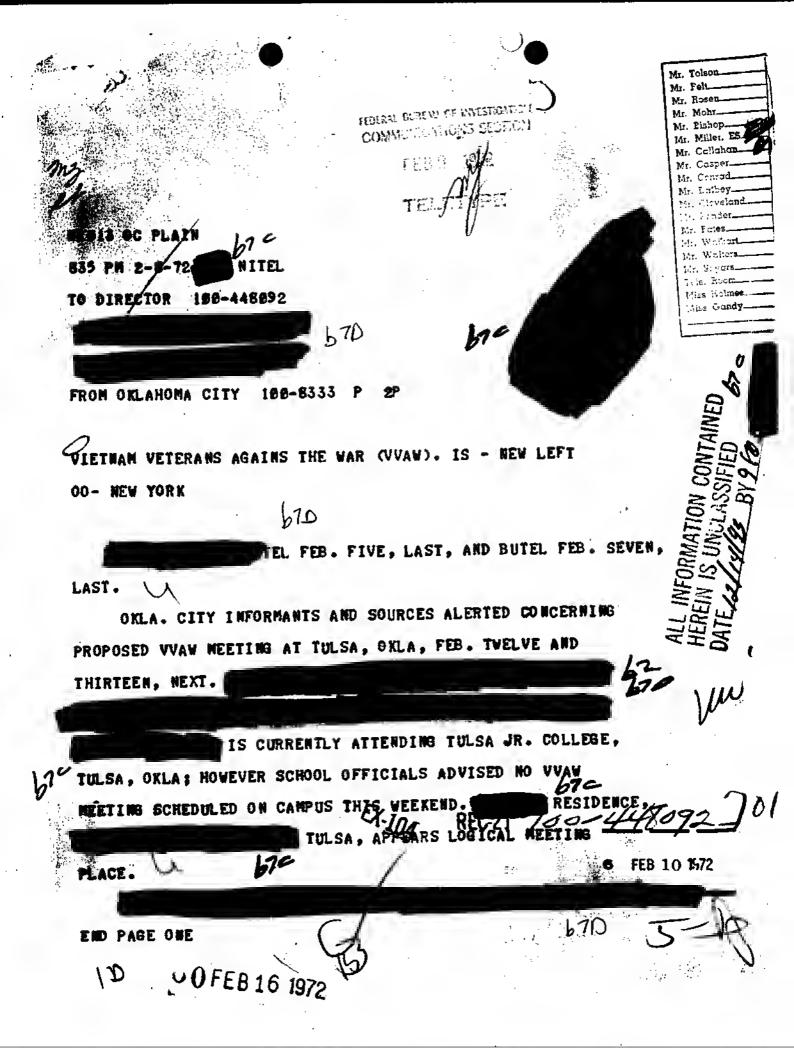

Southern Conference Educational Fund, Inc. (SCEF), Louisville, Kentucky, is headed by former Louisville Communist Party, USA, figures Anne and Carl Braden. SCEF supports the New Left, black militant, and peace movements.

STUDENTS FOR A DEMOCRATIC SOCIETY

Students for a Democratic Society (SDS) was founded during June, 1962, at Port Huron, Michigan, and in the 1960's functioned as the leading New Left campus-based student organization in the United States. From a stance of "participatory democracy", the SDS moved to a radical-revolutionary position. It maintained a national office at 1608 West Madison Street, Chicago, Illinois, until February, 1970. Internal factionalism during 1969 produced three main factions: Weatherman, Revolutionary Youth Movement (RYM), and Worker Student Alliance (WSA). The Weatherman and RYM no longer consider themselves associated with the SDS. The WSA faction continues to use the name SDS.

informant has developed preliminary information that VVA chapters in Colorado, Utah and Wyoming plan caravan, 2/10-14/72, to Cairo, Illinois, to take food and supplies to black community. Informant advised considerable interest being aroused for participation in caravan and all activity being coordinated at Kansas City, Missouri. We bave received information from informants in the past that similar caravans to Cairo actually transported arms and ammunition in addition to food and supplies. Topics to be discussed include internal organizational structure of VVAW, proposals for activities during political campaigns, 1972, and selection of delegation to travel to Hanoi to attempt to effect release of prisoners of war. Attendance of 70 VVAW representatives expected & meeting: During a similar National VVAW Steering Committee meeting in Kansas City, 11/71, our informants detected first indications of overt VVAW militancy. It is noted that to this point, Cincinnati has developed no information regarding persons active in the VVAW here indicating affiliation of these persons with any basic revolutionary or activist groups with which to characterize such persons.

It is further noted that the emerging Cincinnati chapter of the VVAW is self-identified as a chapter of the national VVAW. Further investigation at Cincinnati will in part be oriented to show the national affiliation or lack of affiliation of the VAW units at Columbus, Ohio and Dayton, Ohio.

Cincinnati is continuing expanded investigation of the VVAW and will, among other investigation, determine any anticipated participation from within the Cincinnati Division in the forthcoming national convention of the VVAW to be held in New York City, 2/18-21/72.
